DETAILED ACTION

In the Amendment dated July 30, 2003, applicant has amended claims 9, 25, 39, 43 and 45 is acknowledged. Accordingly, claims 1-45 remain pending in this application.

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claim 46 non-elected without traverse. Accordingly, claim 46 has been cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-45 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reason for allowance: Claims 1-8 are allowable over the cited prior art of Kinsman fails to teach or suggest the claim recitation of a leadframe for use in a integrated circuit package comprising support members being substantially parallel to the end of the die paddle to which they are connected as claimed in independent claim 1; Claims 9-24 are allowable over the cited prior art of Kinsman fails to teach or suggest the claim recitation of a leadframe for an integrated circuit comprising support member with an offset angle of less than 45 degrees as claimed in independent claim 9; Claims 25-38 are allowable over the cited prior art of Kinsman fails to teach or suggest the claim recitation of a leadframe for an integrated circuit comprising an offset angle between the first line segment and the vertical axis that is less than 45 degrees as claimed in independent claim 25; Claims 39-42 are allowable over the cited prior art of Kinsman fails to teach or suggest the claim recitation of an integrated circuit package assembly comprising an offset angle between the die and the frame, as projected on to a horizontal axis, that is less than 4 mils as claimed in independent claim 39; Claims 43 and 44 are allowable over the cited prior art of Kinsman fails to teach or suggest the claim recitation of an integrated circuit package comprising a first support member that is substantially parallel to the first side of the die paddle to which is connected as claimed in independent claim 43; and Claim 45 is allowable over the cited prior art of Kinsman fails to teach or suggest the claim recitation of a leadframe for an integrated circuit comprising support members extend away from a vertical plane that passes between the support members as claimed in independent claim 45. Prior art of record fails to teach or suggest incorporating these limitations into prior art of Kinsman to form the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance”.
